

and a hate crime Center...
the Jewish Community...
Political, community leader...
against anti-Semitism...
Jewish headstones destroyed at mass...
Graffiti Spree...
Synagogue Defaced With...
What's Behind the...
Dozens Of Volunteers Helping To Clean...
A Dangerous Rise In Anti-Semitism...
Schools...
Swastika graffiti found...
Neighbors hold 'Stand Against Hate' rally...
Bigotry... incidents?

Temple Israel invites you to join us for

Imminent Threat,

Community Response

A conversation about anti-Semitism, threats to the Jewish Community, and our community response with the Detroit Crime Commission and Andy Arena

Tuesday, May 9, 2017

7 pm • Temple Israel

Andy Arena is Executive Director of the Detroit Crime Commission. In 2001, Mr. Arena was designated assistant special agent in charge of the FBI Detroit Division, where he oversaw the counterterrorism and counterintelligence programs. Following the terrorist attacks of 9/11, Mr. Arena was promoted to chief of the International Terrorism Operations Section at FBI Headquarters. In 2004, Mr. Arena was promoted to the position of special agent in charge of the New York Division. In 2007, Mr. Arena assumed the position of special agent in charge of the Detroit Division.

This program is open to the community, however reservations are requested. Please register at temple-israel.org/ITCR

Questions? Contact Randi Simko at 248-661-5700 or randi@temple-israel.org.